Our Camp's Photo Release Consent

During Camp, Camp staff will be taking photos and videos of youth participating in the Camp activities and having fun. These photos are typically for the enjoyment of all campers and staff and may be made available to all the children as a memento of their camp week and/or may be displayed on our web and social media sites and/or used for promotional purposes by our Camp and/or by our funding and supporting organizations. Unless you indicate otherwise, you consent to the use of the photos and videos of your child as indicated above. The Camp also plans to take a photograph of your child for the purpose of having that available in the event of an emergency. That individual photo will not be used other than for this purpose.
